

Programme

23rd October 16h30-18h30 (Communications in French)

Introduction: Alain Servantie, Coordinator of the Scientific Committee of the Cooperation Network of the Routes of Emperor Charles V / Miguel Ángel Martín Ramos, President of Cooperation Network of the Routes of Emperor Charles V. Delegate in Brussels of the European and Ibero-American Academy of Yuste Foundation / Stefano Dominioni, Director of the Institute for Cultural Routes of the Council of Europe. From Empire to Europe

- Roel Jacobs, Historical adviser to Brussels city : 1520- Charles V's political program, from the imperial dream to the nightmare of European imbalance
- Juan-Carlos d'Amico, Professor at the University of Caen: Symbolic and political aspects of the three coronations of Charles V.
- Jonathan Dumont, Researcher, Austrian Academy of Sciences (Vienna): "Fashioning a Monarchic Idea in the Early Sixteenth Century Low Countries"

5th November 16h30-18h00. (Communications in English)

- Maarten Vermeir, Doctorandus at University of Jaen: Erasmus, Utopia and Empire
- María de Fátima Antunes dos Reis, General Secretary at the Portuguese Academy of History. Sub-director of the School of Arts and Humanities of the University of Lisbon: "Portraits of the Sephardic diaspora: the brothers Faleiro and Magalhães at the service of Charles V".

19th November 16h30-18h30. (Communications in Spanish)

- Francesco Totaro, Member of the Scientific Committee of the Cooperation Network of the Routes of Emperor Charles V. Member of the International Cultural Center "L. Einaudi" of San Severo (Italy): "The indult of the punishment of the right. One day to change the story of a life"
- Carlos Belloso Martín, Dr. in Modern History at the Miguel de Cervantes European University, Valladolid: The return of Carlos V to Castilla after his Coronation in Aachen: justice and Royal Pardon for the Comuneros

- Encarnación Sanchez García, Professor at the University Orientale Naples: 1535-1536. Paths of the Spanish language between Naples and Rome. From Carlos V to Juan de Valdés.

3rd December 16h30-19h00. (Communications in French)

- Quentin Jouaville: Teacher at the University of Liège / Lycée français international de Varna. Ut fiat unum ovile et unus pastor. Chancellor Gattinara's universalist dream and his influence on the emperor: levers and networks
- Ludolf Pelizaeus: Deputy Director of the Faculty of Foreign Languages and Cultures of the Universidad de Amiens (France): Coronations and rebellions: Charles and Ferdinand between Spain and the Holy Roman Empire at the start of their reign.
- Philippe Royer: Researcher: Traces of Charles V and his heritage in the collective memory in French Flanders
- Nicola Melis, Professor at the University Cagliari, Department of Political and Social Sciences: Relations between Maghrebi elites and the Ottoman Sultan allied against the Spaniards, after the coronation of Charles V

With the collaboration of:

EUROPEAN AND IBERO-AMERICAN ACADEMY OF YUSTE
FOUNDATION

COUDENBERG
Palace

visit.brussels 